Terms of Service

Introduction

Although our tagline is "Design at the Speed of Life", our motto is "We don't work for you, we work WITH you. When working with inkOperated, you the client, are involved every step of the way. There is no "take it or leave it" with our designs. As much as we value and respect your business, we also value and respect ourselves and our work. To avoid any misunderstandings between inkOperated and the Business Owner or Client, we follow a specific set of guidelines which are spelled out here, in our Terms of Service.
